

NOMINEES FOR THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES ELECTION

✓ Bobby Mayfield is life-long Hulbert resident and graduate of Hulbert High School. He is a member of the Cherokee Nation, a veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps., a retired Hulbert volunteer fireman and a retiree from Ironworkers Local Union 584. Bobby and his wife Dianna are currently retired after 37 years of owning their businesses. They spend most of their time keeping up with various activities involving their six grandchildren. Bobby is currently serving on the Lake Region Electric Cooperative Board as President.

✓ Lynn Lamons is a resident of Hulbert and a life-long member of Lake Region Electric Cooperative. He is a graduate of Tahlequah High School. Lynn is a Cherokee County farmer and rancher who is active in the Cherokee County 4-H Club. He has served twelve years on Lake Region Electric's Board of Trustees.

✓ Buddy Spradlin is a resident of Tahlequah and has been a member of Lake Region Electric Cooperative for 25 years. He is a graduate of Tahlequah High School and attended the University of Madison-Wisconsin and graduated as a CLCP (Certified Loss Control Professional). Buddy has three children and four grandchildren. Buddy has worked in the electrical field for 30 years with lineman experience and as a Field Safety Director.

✓ Liz McMahan and her husband Larry are residents of Wagoner. She has been a member of Lake Region Electric Cooperative for 50 years. Liz has two children and three grandchildren. She has always been interested in the co-op since entering a high school essay contest years ago. Liz has been a member of the Eastern Oklahoma Development District as a reporter. She has covered many school, city and county board meetings as a journalist. Liz is a former president of Wagoner Chamber of Commerce and current Vice President of Wagoner County Historical Society.

✓ Rob Pierce and his wife Donna are residents of Moody and have been members of the co-op since 2007. Rob is a graduate of Locust Grove High School and has three children. Rob is a third generation rancher and the Pastor of Exciting Southeast Baptist Church in Tahlequah and Pryor. Rob has the knowledge of how a business operates and experience dealing with people. His church has grown from fourteen to around five hundred members. Rob serves on the Elders Board at his Church, Outreach Committees, and a Disaster Help Committee.